1990

Dear Ma—

This will have to serve as your Christmas card. As you know, Christmas cards are getting outrageously expensive. It can't cost them anywhere near that much to print the damn things — it must be what is called a "rip-off."

I hope you have a very merry Christmas (or as merry as possible under the circumstances) and a happy New Year.

— Ted

KTZH

T-155

MERRY

CHRISTMAS